Bluffton Police Department Invites Public to its 5th Annual 9/11 Remembrance Ceremony

When: Wednesday, September 11, 2013, 8:40 a.m.

Where: Bluffton Town Hall, 20 Bridge Street

Why: To Honor the nearly 3,000 people who died in the worst terrorist attack on American soil.

Who: Speakers include:

- Bluffton Police Department's Chief of Staff, Angie Tanner
- Bluffton Police Department
- Bluffton Fire Department
- Reverend John Ring/Chaplain/Bluffton Police Department
- Bluffton Mayor's Lisa Sulka
- Former FBI Agent/Wells Morrison

Featured Speaker:

Wells Morrison, a native-South Carolinian, was one of the first F.B.I. agents to arrive at the 9/11 crash site of United Airlines 93 in Shanksville, Pa. Morrison served as the F.B.I.'s Deputy-On-Scene Commander during the recovery effort in Shanksville. Morrison, now retired after serving the F.B.I. for 30 years, is currently the director of security for Dataw Island.

Morrison lives on Lady's Island.
